

Analysis of Top 10 Companies(2021-2022)

The insights highlighted shows few similarities and differences based on network, gender, sector, revenue and number of new joiners. As we all know that Elon Musk is the richest CEO but according to the heatmap it shows that Apple CEO (Tim cook) has more network than the rest. However, the salary of the CEO is seen highest in technology sector. Marking Mark Zuxkerberg as the highest salary given CEO. The top ten CEO's are all men as seen above. However, the company run by women CEO has high profitability too even though they do not come on the top list.
